WATERLOO CO. WEE BITS

Mr. and Mrs. Absalom Martin called on the Moynihan for a visit recently. Their two little daughters are thriving like maple saplings.

Mr. Albert Siess, of Pontiac, Mich., Mr. George Moore, of London, and Mr. James P. Orr, of Milverton, were among the thousands of visitors to the twin cities of Kitchener and Waterloo, during old home week of August 1st to 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Williams and family, of Kitchener, have returned home from a pleasant holiday in Toronto, Stouffville and other parts.

William Hagen has been down with his family holidaying at Holloway and other places in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golds, Sr., of Kitchener, spent civic holiday with the Moynihans in Waterloo.

Our sympathy is extended to Miss Mary Bull, of Bloomingdale, in the recent death of her nephew, Mr. Alex. McAllister. He was a very prominent lumber mill owner of that place. Miss Bull's only living sister is the mother of the deceased.

Mrs. J. A. Moynihan, of Waterloo, is, at time of writing, expecting a visit from her only brother, Dr. A. B. Bennett, of Washington, D. C.

Silver Lake and its beautiful park adjoining attracted much attention from the many reunion visitors. It is near the Moynihan home, and bathing is a favorite sport with all.

GENERAL GLEANINGS.

On July 25th, the stork fluttered over the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hart, of Montreal, and left a bouncing, cooing little girl. Both mother and child are doing well. Mrs. Hart was formerly Miss Clara Balkwill, of Exeter, Ont.

The deaf who were his schoolmates at Belleville, over three decades ago, would be delighted to hear of the whereabouts of Mr. Robert Hanson, a tailor by trade.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Timpson, of Long Branch, were recently favored with a visit from the latter's uncle and cousin, Messrs. Smith and Charles Theakston, of Buffalo, who spent a couple of days with the Timpsons. Fortunately for them, their deaf sister and aunt, Mrs. Charles McLaren, of Raglan, mother of Mrs. Timpson, happened to be there then, so the meeting was more mutual and home like.

HERBERT W. ROBERTS.

Sundry Notes.

PORTLAND.

The Thierman family returned on Sunday, August 2d, from a seven weeks' trip in California. They met many old friends in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, and other smaller towns. Mr. and Mrs. Thierman and son are feeling fine, and at the time of writing, they are still talking of their wonderful trip in their new Star touring car, and not one tire trouble during their long tour. Mr. Thierman really was in love with the Southern part of California, and may some day return and make it his home, but as to scenery the Thierman agreed Oregon had the finest scenery and highway in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Werner, who are spending their vacation in Portland, motored up to Salem recently on business, returning the same day. They are really enjoying their stay here, and making many friends with the Portland deaf, and are well liked.

Mr. Theodore Elvert, of Los Angeles, was a caller in Portland recently, and took in the Frat meeting while here.

Mrs. R. Spieler, with her brother, of New York, are spending their vacation at Seaside, where Mrs. Spieler's sister lives. They will be gone a couple of weeks during August.

Mrs. M. Werner, Mrs. C. H. Linde and Mrs. H. P. Nelson, invited their friends to a picnic on Sunday, August 9th, up on the hills of beautiful Mt. Tabor Park. The Lindstroms called on Miss Northrup while in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Werner and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson were guests at dinner on Thursday night, August 6th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooke. During the evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. Thierman and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Linde called. The evening was spent in chatting.

Rainless Era seems to have ended on Wednesday, August 12th, around

Oregon, after a 60 days drouth, although only a few drops fell, it looks cloudy, and the forest fire which has destroyed much timber, is now well under control.

The Thiermans are now back home on Gladstone Avenue, after a two months' tour of Oregon and California, but they still have the California fever, and may go back for good some day, but we know they all come back to beautiful Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner are expecting a visit from the latter's mother and sister from New York City.

H. P. NELSON.

GREENSBURG, PA.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, of Greensburg and Wilkensburg, attended a picnic given by silent members of the Pittsburgh First Baptist Church, at Schenley Park, Pittsburgh, Saturday. Prof. Downing, of the teaching staff, of the Edgewood School, who acts as interpreter for the benefit of the members of that Church, was, of course, at the picnic. The Smiths report having had quite an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Fox recently returned from a motor trip to Waynesburg, Pa., where they visited with their former schoolmate, Miss Iva McGlumf.

Mrs. James G. Poole, of Hunker, is enjoying a prolonged visit with her old classmates in the East. In the meanwhile, poor Jamie is engaged in the garb of bachelor.

Mike Blazerick, a student of the Western Pennsylvania Institution, is back at the Westmoreland County Home, two miles south of town, to spend the summer vacation. We wonder if he will be sent back to school this term again. During Rev. Mr. Smielau's service at Christ Church here, Mike was liberally given a fair sum of money by our silent friends, who are in great sympathy with him. He is a seemingly bright boy, and is twelve years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Fox and your scribe spent a most delightful evening with Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith, at their apartment, last week. The edition of the JOURNAL is quite an improvement over the previous one. Well, let us most heartily congratulate your editor on the great progress of your paper. We, too, hope for your continued improvement in health.

It is definitely understood that "Sporty Russ" Diehl and "Big James" Princler are planning to join several other deaf fellow from Pittsburgh in their motorcycle trip to Columbus, O., early in September, to participate in the annual reunion of the Ohio Alumni Association.

Through the writer's sister, he learned that there is a mute boy, named Bernard Geiger, living in the West end of Greensburg, and that he has been attending De Paul School for deaf-mutes at Brookline during the past year. The writer will soon visit that boy, before he returns to his studies at the above-named school.

"Rex" has returned from a most delightful vacation, spent in the Eastern part of the Commonwealth, which includes Ligonier, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Cressen, Altoona, Tyrone, Huntingdon, Harrisburg, Hershey, and other points of interest. He spent a couple of days at the Governor Hotel in Harrisburg, and was greatly pleased with the inviting, cheerful, atmospheric aspect of that hotel. He was undoubtedly treated in a most courteous manner.

He was at the State Capitol on a tour of inspection. An old friend of his own slapped him on the shoulder, who had quickly recognized him. The meeting between them was, it's needless to state, quite a joyful one. They both were busy writing a great deal for nearly an hour. They formerly were employed in the packing department of Kelly & Jones Company's mammoth brass and iron works, south of Greensburg. The gentleman in question is employed as one of the clerks in the Department of Public Instruction, Bureau of School Buildings, and also is assistant Director. He certainly showed your correspondent all through the Star buildings, which make the latter most interested. He said to his old friend: "Goodbye," so he went back to the hotel in the evening. The next morning he took a trolley ride to Hershey, a distance of fourteen miles from Harrisburg, truly enjoying an inviting view of the surrounding country. On the arrival of that place, he was favorably impressed with its magnificent appearance and also its many aristocratic homes. Hershey Park is said to be one of the finest places in this beautiful land. Well, it seems like the Paradise of Eden, where Adam and Eve formerly lived, about whom ye readers have often read in the Bible. It was the writer's privilege to visit that park. There is also an immense chocolate factory, which stands on an eminence, commanding a beautiful view of Hershey Park. Well, it is well worth while to travel many miles to visit the beautiful park. The scribbler went to the Hershey cafe for dinner. Dinner over, he returned to Harrisburg by trolley, more than pleased with what he learned and observed. Harrisburg is a fine city, which he likes very much. He stayed at the said hotel till Wednesday afternoon, July 29th, when a "flyer" he occupied made a dashing trip over the Pennsylvania Railroad. He evidently enjoyed a quick through delightful trip. He will ever remember the fine vacation that he spent in the eastern part of the State. He resumed his duties in the job department of the Greensburg Tribune-Review Publishing Company the next morning, but he felt very tired from the long journey.

The writer's brother, one of the leading attorneys of Warsaw, Indiana, and his two daughters, motored to town early in July, to visit with him and sister. They said that they enjoyed their motor trip East on account of the several roads being in excellent condition.

"Sporty Russ" recently returned from a cycle trip to West Newton. There must be some attraction for him.

"Rex" regrets his inability to attend the big annual reunion of the Pennsylvania Alumni Association and the annual Convention of the P. S. A. D., to be held at the Mt. Airy School, Philadelphia, September 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th.

"REX."

HOME FOR THE DEAF NEAR WESTERVILLE, OHIO.

Rickly, nephew and niece of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bard, both of Columbus, brought them along with them to this home in an automobile on Sunday afternoon, August 9th, and let the latter couple stop off here to visit and talk with all the residents, while the Ricklys again motored to Westerville for a call on their friends and had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clum and their daughter, of Columbus, visited at this Home with Supt. and Mrs. W. E. Chapman for about two hours on Monday evening, and the evening was well spent.

I received a letter from Mr. Corydon Cook a few days ago, and he told me that he was then visiting with his son and family in Grandville, Michigan, for a few weeks. He said he was going to Lakeview, Michigan in a few days to visit with his other son and then he would fish, for he was crazy about this sport.

After attending the brilliant homecoming picnic and celebration on the ground of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, August 11th, Mrs. Mary Powell, of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fancher, of Glena, Ohio, came here to see their deaf brother, George W. Fancher, for a few hours and had a good time.

Mr. John Winemiller so luckily hired Mr. William Allen, of Columbus, to do the wood work on the poultry house for a few days, beginning Friday. He was in a great hurry to finish it, but as the work is said to be imperfect in some places, he may not get it done before the approaching reunion. He boards with the Chapmans.

Mr. A. J. Beckert came down here with his picture-films in an automobile and he operated the machine on Thursday evening. The show was good. Four young lads of Columbus accompanied him to attend this movie show. They enjoyed it very much. I don't know their names.

Mrs. Mary Bice went to Columbus in an automobile with her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Wilkin, on Friday morning and spent a few days in shopping for the reunion.

A few of the residents here are excited and talk about attending the reunion pretty soon.

Messrs. William McBlane and Jesse Inman, of Columbus, were merry motorists to this Home on Friday night and had a funny time with the male residents for an hour.

Mr. William J. Allen requested me to note that he was called to Portsmouth, Ohio, on August 6th, by the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Martha Allen, at the age of 86 years. Infirmities of old age were the cause. Her remains were taken to Maysville, Kentucky, for burial. He was there to attend the funeral. He has sadly missed her ever since her death.

Messrs Robert McGregor, of Grove City, and William H. Zorn, of Columbus, were merry visitors at this Home on Sunday afternoon, August 16th.

The many Cleveland friends of "Silent Bob" Hogan will be pleased to know that he is still working in East Akron and is in excellent health. ### THE RED CROSS SERVES.

Service to those who suffer is the ideal of the American Red Cross. In peace, as in war, it has placed it high above all others.

The disabled veterans of the World War are the particular concern of the Red Cross. For the soldiers, sailors and marines, many of whom are still suffering as the result of wounds received, and for the assistance of the men of the regular Army and Navy and their families the Red Cross has expended since Armistice $53,000,000. It aids more than 100,000 disabled veterans and their families each month and it serves 249,000 men now in active service.

The suffering which comes from great disasters the Red Cross is ever ready to relieve and the loss incurred it stands to make good. In the 44 years of its existence it has expended $48,000,000 in 700 disasters in the United States. It has an enrolled reserve of 41,000 nurses ready to meet such emergencies.

That suffering from ill health may be curtailed, that needless drowning may be checked, and that knowledge of what to do in cases of accident in that important first half hour before the doctor comes may be imparted, the Red Cross has its courses in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, in First Aid and Life-Saving.

During the year it taught Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick to 67,281 women, girls and boys, Nutrition to 161,000, Life-Saving to 21,000 and First Aid to 18,000.

It has 1,000 public health nurses on duty in the United States.

The children bear their part of the burden. The American Junior Red Cross has 5,596,633 members who are being taught the beauty and value of unselfish service. They are establishing friendships with the children of 40 foreign countries.

YOUR membership in the Red Cross is needed to help comfort the wounded veterans, to alleviate suffering and to preserve health.

One dollar will admit you into the fraternity. Won't you join?

THE DE L'EPEE MEMORIAL FUND.

In a recent issue of the Catholic Deaf-Mute, I have noted a reference by the Chicago representative of that paper to the De l'Epee Memorial Statue fund of the National Association of the Deaf. The Chicago correspondent seems to think a slight has been placed on the worthy Catholic deaf in the methods pursued by the N. A. D. statue committee to raise money for this great project.

This fund is being collected to finance the erection of a memorial to the good and great De l'Epee, one of the foremost benefactors of the deaf the world has known. The monument will testify to our lasting gratitude to this man, who did so much for the advancement of the deaf, who contributed lasting benefits upon those he loved and for whom he unselfishly laboured, whose work helped to bring the deaf to their present high moral, social, and economic standing.

Whatever may be the creed or religious affiliation of the individual deaf of America, one and all can and do unite in paying homage to De l'Epee's memory. I am confident that notwithstanding personal opinions and beliefs regarding methods pursued in raising this memorial fund, it eventually will be raised and a fitting monument erected.

The National Association of the Deaf knows no creed. It draws no line of demarcation between this and that sect or religious denomination. Much less does it for an instant belittle the very great service rendered the cause of the deaf by the Catholics of America, working through the National Association of the Deaf organization or otherwise. The Association has always considered its membership as homogeneous, as one great body working toward a common and beneficial end, the welfare of all the deaf. It has never singled out one religious group in preference to another. It does not pay homage to De l'Epee because he was a Catholic. It reveres and honors him for the work he did in behalf of the deaf, for his unselfish devotion to their cause. His stature is so great that he rises above all petty considerations of religious affiliation.

The successive committees in charge of the De l'Epee fund have gone about their extremely difficult task with enthusiasm, and have accomplished much in the face of many handicaps. The members of this committee have never had and will never have any intention to slight the Catholic deaf in the collection of this fund. From the inception of the project to raise money for the memorial, the committee have had the services of the Catholic deaf all over America, and none have been more loyal and enthusiastic in the cause.

I do not like to see aspersions cast upon the motives and methods of the present committee, because I know that such aspersions are unjust and uncalled for. The committee is composed of very capable and wholly loyal workers, giving unselfishly of their time and even money in advancing a worthy undertaking. I am certain that the members of this committee are always ready to co-operate in any plan whereby the fund may be brought nearer to completion, and entirely willing to adopt any worthy idea or method, from whatever source, that will advance the work they have in hand.

The Association has always counted and will continue to count on the efficient co-operation of Catholics, just as it counts on the support and co-operation of all other classes in the work of advancing the welfare of the deaf.

ARTHUR L. ROBERTS,
President.

CHICAGO.

My bonnie lies out on the roadway,
My bonnie lies over the lea;
I stepped on the gas—
But some fool took to pass!
I am deaf, but he's DUMB; woe is me!

The Oldsmobile Six owned and driven by Horace Perry, was utterly demolished, smashed, pulverized, shattered and "made punk" (that's the sign) in a head-on collision with a Kissel Saturday, August 8th.

Perry had left Milwaukee with his kids and wife and her sister, making good time for Chicago. The Kissel, trying to pass a Ford, swung out directly in front of Perry's car—the force of the impact sending them both into the ditch, a hopeless mess of twisted steel. By some strange freak of fate nobody was hurt, aside from a healthy shaking-up. Admitting himself at fault, the driver of the Kissel promptly paid Perry full cash value for his car, right on the spot. But Perry is a smart youngster—and so he secured $150 more from a nearby junk-man for the ruins.

Perry will probably wait awhile before buying a new car, since he has had a long streak of ill-luck attendant on the old bus—culminating last April when his garage burned. For this he received full insurance.

Clyde Fuller, of Elgin, was not so fortunate. He sustained a badly cut wrist, and his wife broke both legs, then his car collided east of Naperville July 19th. Mrs. Fuller is still in the hospital at Charles, Ill. Unlike Perry, Fuller seems to have been responsible for the accident—it is said he was driving on the wrong side of the road.

Whether or not one agrees with the purpose and tactics of Chicago Drove No. 1057, Patriotic and Protective Order of Stags of the World, their doings constitute NEWS—and are accordingly given:

Exalted Director Tom Gray is editor of a nicely printed four-page monthly. The last issue had a group picture of thirteen (yes, 13) South Bend "Stags" affiliated with the Chicago Drove. Photo by Tom Hainline, Elkhart, Ind., a deaf man. It says Irby H. Marchman has corraled twenty members in St. Louis, and expects to secure a charter soon. George Marsch spent several weeks in the South, bringing back seven applications from Tennessee and Indianapolis. Jesse Waterman recently met the organization's Supreme Director in St. Louis Dr. W. R. Dupree and found he could spell on his hands.

The Silent A. C. has changed the date of its regular monthly business meetings to the first Saturday in each month. Despite the summer slackness, house manager Johnnie

Sullivan rented the premises so many times that the financial statement shows a nice increase—total cash assets being $12,470.31. The fall social season opens with a bunco and "500," September 12th.

Rev. Dr. P. J. Hastenstab has loaned one of his cottages at Lake Delvan, Wis., to the inmates of the Illinois Home for Aged Deaf, and the whole shebang departed on the 15th, to spend up to two weeks there. Mrs. Alice Whitson loaded her car with victuals and took Miss Caroline Hyman and Miss Booth up to the cottage a day earlier.

Among those who have been camping on the Indiana sand Dunes were Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Hagemeyer, the Mickenhams and Herrans, in a cottage; and John and Ralph Miller in tents. The W. Barrows spent two delightful weeks there.

Mrs. F. X. Zitnik, of Akron, was an old timer vacationing here, the guest of Mrs. Margaret Couglan.

Dick Long was last heard of in Minneapolis. His daughter, Hazel, was recently married to an artist named Graham.

Mrs. George Morton and her sister autoed to Detroit to spend a couple of weeks.

C. Lawrence, of Ray City, was in town on the 15th. Ed Heber, of Springfield, and Rollo Rountree, of East St. Louis, were also in town lately.

James Hammersley and wife, of Akron, drove into town on the 17th, their Nash bedecked with Goodyear pennants, bearing two charming blue-eyed lassies with them, Misses Ella Berry and Dorothy Morgan. They were en route to the convention at Council Bluffs, Iowa, visiting old friends along the way.

The Silent A. C. will have another picnic at Niles Center on the 30th. Chairman John Schwarz having posters printed "Everybody Welcome, come and see the deaf-mutes' dance." The Sac should make another nice profit, as well as having a truly typical good time.

Mrs. George Schriver, with her young daughter, are visiting her old stamping-grounds in and around Rochester, N. Y.

Frederick Meinken and wife took an enjoyable belated-honeymoon to the east, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Niagara Falls, boat to Detroit, and home.

Remembering August 9th as the birthday of Arthur L. Roberts, Grand President of the N. A. D., and remembering that his wife, the stately dowager-queen of Saville, is summing in Cleveland, the H. Leiters treated him to a chicken dinner. President Roberts will attend the monument exercises of the N. A. D. in the Hartford, Ct., next week.

A few intimate friends surprised Mrs. H. Leiter on the 15th, her birthday. Relatives gave her a lovely platinum bar-pin.

Miss Hope Divine, the 18-year-old hearing daughter of L. A. Divine, for twenty years head teacher in the Washington State School at Vancouver, passed through town on the 15th, en route to Philadelphia. She will sojourn there with relatives until the opening of the North Carolina School, where she will serve as a cadet-teacher.

About 100 silents attended a gathering at South Bend, Ind., August 8th to 9th.

Another picnic was held at Culver, Ind., on the 16th. Bob Kannappel is still plunking a linotype for the Culver Citizen. The whole Kannappel family came up from Louisville to spend a week in one of the cottages at that popular lake.

Mrs. Tom Gray gave a little picnic at Columbus Park on the 15th.

Over a dozen silent attended Mrs. A. J. Meehan's basket-picnic at Jackson Park on the 15th.

Several friends called on Mrs. McGuire Chaffant, an Omaha girl, who has not mixed with the deaf of recent years.

Friends surprised Mrs. H. Leiter on her birthday, the 15th. James Watson recently excused into town from Des Moines, Iowa, attending service at All Angels.

A printed list of agents of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company shows Albert Berg, Chicago, ranking fourth in the division selling between $15,000 and $25,000 worth of insurance during the month of July.

Charles Martin and Frank Chowolski took an excursion to St. Paul on the 2d.

Dates ahead: September 7th, Annual Labor Day picnic for Home for Aged Deaf, Polonia Grove, 12th Sac Bunco and "500."

OMAHA.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Treuke and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hazel motored to Cheney, Neb., Saturday, July 18th, and surprised Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cody. Twelve miles from Lincoln, the Treukes had a beautiful blow-out and twelve miles beyond, the Hazels had another, and it took a long while to start again. Both parties took their tents and camping paraphernalia. Mrs. Ota Blakenship was there to help make things merry. On their homeward journey no less than three blow-outs happened to each car. We might call it a "blow out trip." They undoubtedly had various "blow-out" nightmares that night.

All Souls' Mission gave a watermelon social at Trinity Cathedral Parish House, Friday, July 31st. There was a good crowd, and everybody cleaned up juicy melons. The affair was in charge of Mrs. John M. O'Brien, Mrs. Avadna Gomme and Mrs. F. Chase. Harry G. Long found hidden treasure up in the attic. Mr. Long and Mrs. Treuke won in the guest guessing contest. Mrs. Blakenship and Miss Grace Long were tied in guessing a word with two letters given. Tossing a quarter decided Mrs. Blakenship the winner. Then "Marching to Jerusalem" was played, at which John Marty won. Everyone had a jolly good time.

On Saturday afternoon, August 1st, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hurt, Mrs. Blankenship and Mrs. Clara B. Rogers motored to Lincoln to visit at the home of Mrs. Blankenship's mother. From there the Hurts and Miss Rogers left for Kansas for a week's visit, whence the latter will leave for her home in South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase have moved into their new four-room house near Elmwood Park, and are as happy as can be. They motored to Fremont, Neb., Sunday, August 9th, to visit Mr. Chase's parents, and to Beatrice, Neb., Sunday, August 16th, to visit Mrs. Chase's folks.

Mrs. J. S. Long entertained at luncheon, Wednesday, July 26th, at the home of her daughter in Council Bluffs, for Mesdames J. W. Sowell, A. L. Hurt, C. E. Comp, Miss Rogers and Miss Roper and again on Friday, July 31st, for Mesdames Barrett, McMullen, Holloway, H. G. Long and Miss Grace Evans.

Mrs. C. E. Comp entertained at luncheon, Monday, July 25th, for Mesdames McMullen, J. S. Long, S. W. Barrett, F. C. Holloway, A. L. Hurt and Misses Rogers and Roper.

The Council Bluffs Frats held a picnic on the beautiful Iowa School grounds, Sunday, August 9th. Their purpose was to raise money to defray expenses for the coming installation of a new division there. Most of the Omaha crowd was absent, although the weather was ideal. A game of base ball opened the program between captains Jas. R. Jelinek of the "Giants" and H. G. Long of the "Yanks." Many of the big league players would have been astonished to see the brilliant playing of each team. John "McGraw" Marty of the Giants hit a beautiful home-run when he sent the ball sailing towards Lake Manawa. Chester Dobson hit a three-bagger, and R. Arch bunted to perfection for the Yanks. Capt. Jelinek fooled every one when he swung a hard blow and only sent the ball to the center, winning a two-base hit. Miss Mary Dobson was struck out when she tried to hit the ball backwards to the Industrial Building. Walter Zabel looked like Babe Ruth when he made a beautiful swing to center field and grabbed third base. H. G. Long took things easy and made three runs on easy hits. The score stood 10 to 9 in favor of Capt. Jelinek's team. After this game was in order. Pop sucking with nipples caused a lot of merriment, and finally Jas. R. Jelinek and Miss Grace Long proved the best match. Mrs. Myrtle Schurkamp won the water-melon contest by collecting forty seeds. Miss Hazel Holmes proved the long distance ball thrower out of some twelve girls, and John Marty out-distanced the boys. With H. G. Long as auctioneer, seven lunch boxes were sold reaping over $11. Water-melons, pop and ice cream were sold and a profit of $10 was cleared. Every one had a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto McMullen, of Los Angeles, who have been visiting relatives and friends, the past six weeks, left for Salt Lake City, Utah, Saturday, August 15th, to visit a daughter, a few days, enroute home to Los Angeles.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents near Arlington, Neb., on Sunday afternoon, August 9th, Mr. Leo Kuehn, of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Lydia Rothe were united in marriage. Mr. Kuehn had motored down from Detroit. Those present from Omaha were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dobson and Fred Anthony.

Omaha Division, No. 32, gave a picnic, Saturday, August 15th, on the Nebraska School grounds and the weather was up to expectations. Although the crowd did not begin to arrive till around 4 P.M., some fifty were present. The baseball game which opened the program got everyone braced up. L. G. Long and A. L. Johnson were the captains. As usual John Marty hit a home run with two on bases. O. M. Treuke pitched a beautiful ball, but the opponents knew when to hit. H. G. Long hit the ball to Pitcher Treuke, who dropped it so as to let "H. G." reach first base. There are few kind-hearted pitchers like that. "O. M. T." decided that Marty was not the only home-runner, so started to hit a hard one way out, but it landed in the right fielder's hands and Umpire Joe Kynch "yelled" out. The ladies had their day in hitting, but failed to count on runs. Mrs. Treuke thought she hit a home run when the umpire screamed "foul," then she drew a strike out.

Robert Dobson thought Pitcher C. Macek easy, but failed to hit. The final score stood 4 to 1, in favor of H. G. Long's team. There was an uproar when the men started a race, each carrying a lady. Charles Macek won with Miss Helen Holway. The Treukes went "bang" on mother earth, and John Marty and Mrs. Gomme also sprawled on the ground and rolled over. H. G. Long won the knot untying contest and Mrs. E. M. Hazel won another by tying the rope. John Marty proved his ancestors were pickannies by winning the watermelon eating contest. Elsie Anothony won the little girls' race and Arthur Holter, the boy's. Mrs. Steyer's daughter won the ladies' 25 yard dash and Edwin M. Hazel, the men's sack race. Miss Helen Holway won the corn race and Mrs. Steyer's daughter for picking up the most corn scattered on the ground. Delicious pie a la mode was sold along with pop and ice-cream. Hot dogs and watermelon were served free and aplenty. A basket of artificial fruit was raffled and John Marty won. Mrs. Marty is visiting her folks out in Iowa. We wonder if her absence accounts for all his winnings.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Schuyler Long entertained at dinner, Sunday, August 16th, at the home of their daughter in Council Bluffs, for Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Holway and family. Dr. Long has just returned from a delightful motor trip to New York with his son-in-law, Supt. Elwood Stevenson, of Minnesota. They drove by twins making as many as 330 miles a day, and returning home, they drove 503 miles in one day. At an Indiana town they came near being pinched for the carelessness of another driver who sped on.

Mrs. Avadna Gomme and little daughter, Clineeta, have gone to Kansas for a two week's visit with Mrs. Gomme's father.

Mrs. J. W. Sowell and youngest daughter, Alice, went to Cleveland, Ohio, the first of August, where Miss Sowell attended the Convention of the Dancing Masters of America. At the same time she will study under Stefano Mascagno. They will be gone a month.

The following was taken from the Omaha World-Herald of August 12th:

"Friday evening of this week between the hours of seven and eight, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Heinzman, 4411 North Thirty-first Avenue, will celebrate their golden wedding. A supper will be served to many friends and the members of their family.

"It will be unique in the fact that here is a couple who have never uttered a cross word to one another, not alone because they are deaf-mutes, but because they are two individuals with 'hearts that beat as one.'

"He is seventy-seven, and she is sixty-eight, and ever since 1884, forty-nine years ago they have made Omaha their home. Kindly, gentle, and with a loving consideration for all about them, members of their family point to them with pride as an ideal mother and father.

"Seven children, all of Omaha, hale and hearty in every respect, call them by these names, and fifteen grandchildren fairly worship them.

"Through illness in childhood both became deaf-mutes. As young people they met in New York City, where they were married and from where they came to Omaha.

"Their children and grandchildren converse with them in the sign language. The elderly couple today said 'we are happy together, and always have been.'

"Mrs. W. L. Hill, a daughter, echoed these sentiments, and added, 'I can never look back and recall a single whipping, although father and mother, unable to address us in the ordinary way must have been sorely tried with us as children.'

"This golden wedding perhaps will be the first of its kind in Omaha. There will be friends present who speak with the voice and others who talk with their fingers. The groom was born in Germany, but his wife is a native of New York State."

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hazel have moved into their new home which was completed the middle of June. They seem to be cozily settled and enjoying the comfort of a modern home.

SEATTLE.

The annual long dry summer spell has this year resulted in several forest fires that have hung a hazy veil over the mountain scenery. We nearly every year do have some trouble from forest fires, but this year there has been more than usual. We are glad it did not start till the close of the great Knights Templar Conclave.

Among recent visitors were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tilley, who reside just outside of San Francisco, across the bay. Mr. and Mrs. Tilley are nationally known among the deaf. They are much impressed by their first visit to Seattle, it being much larger than they had expected. They motored up in their beautiful Franklin car, and stayed at the Olympic while here, proceeding by boat to Victoria and Vancouver, in British Columbia. Returning, they went in their car to Spokane, whence they will visit Banff.

Oscar Sanders, Otto Johnne, Arthur Martin, Sam Schreider, Lynn Palmer, and one other of our boys whose name we did not catch, are now in the harvest fields of eastern Washington for a month. At the recent meeting of the P. S. A. D., Vice-President Ed. Martin filled the chair in the absence of President Sanders. Though new in the office, he handled the reins like a veteran.

The Labor Day picnic will this year be held at Lincoln Park, and it is hoped for a good attendance. This park has a large salt water beach, two immense brick stoves, and many convenient tables, for the entertainment of picnic crowds. A large area in the park has been newly cleared. It will be one of the most popular parks in Seattle as soon as people have waked up to the new conveniences. A street car takes one directly to the entrance.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. McConnell had a picnic last Sunday out at Hood's Canal. The party went in cars, Walter and his family joining it. Mr. L. O. Christenson, who rooms at the McConnell house, was one of the picnickers.

Mrs. Barbara Wildfang, who is well over sixty, recently surprised her friends by appearing with her hair bobbed. She is greatly pleased with the convenience and comfort she experiences as a result. Mrs. George Axt very soon afterwards had her hair bobbed also. Next?

Mr. Hiram N. Gilkinson, who conducts a stamp business, recently inserted an ad in a publication in Medellin, Colombia, South America.

Mr. Roy Harris is slated for a surprise party on the evening of August 19th, in honor of his birthday.

The Gallaudet Guild of St. Mark's will have an excursion to Illahee, on the Sound, on August 30th. Illahee is a popular resort, with a community hall near the dock, and a very pleasant place to spend a day out-of-doors. The sister of Robert Rogers has a summer cottage there.

Mr. Russell Waincott, boys' supervisor at Salem, Oregon, came to Seattle in his car on his vacation trip, and took in the P. S. A. D. meeting Saturday. Later, in company with Mr. J. A. Key, of Tacoma, he visited Mt. Rainier.

MISS DRURY RETIRES.

Miss Martha E. Drury, retiring matron of the American School at Hartford, has many friends in different States of the Union, who will hear with regret that she is leaving active service, having found the responsibilities of her position too weighty for her strength during the past year.

Miss Drury started in the work thirty-six years ago at the Arkansas School, where she served with decided success for a number of years, forming many pleasant associations. Her longest term of service at any one place was at the Michigan School, where she acted as matron for over twenty years, most of which time was spent under the superintendency of the late Dr. F. D. Clarke, who called her from the Arkansas School. Miss Drury has a warm place in the hearts of the deaf of Michigan, who remember with gratitude her efforts to make their school life happier and to add to the pleasure and success of their alumni reunions. The Michigan Association never meets without extending an invitation to Miss Drury to be present, or sending some form of greeting to her. Many who attended the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf at Flint in 1895, and the Centennial Celebration at Hartford in 1917, will remember Miss Drury's pleasant connection with both events.

For the last nine years she has served at the American School, where we are sure she will be greatly missed. Her term of service there was entirely under Superintendent Wheeler, and to her usefulness and efficiency there many expressions of regret and letters of appreciation from officers and members of the board bear testimony.

THE BROOKLYN FRATS' PICNIC

On Saturday afternoon and evening, August 22d, the Brooklyn Frats held their Seventeenth Annual Picnic and Games at Ulmer Park Athletic Field, the scene where for nearly a quarter of a century various organizations of the deaf of Greater New York every summer have held similar affairs and given the silent population of New York and surrounding cities a chance to get together and enjoy a real holiday among themselves.

The Brooklyn Division through the untiring efforts of Harry Pierce Kane was the first New York City to obtain a charter from the National Fraternal Organization, and has been successful from its inception in holding summer outings and other affairs in the winter time.

The affair last Saturday at Ulmer Park Athletic Field was attended by the largest crowd ever seen at summer outings for some time. At about 10:30 p.m., the Committee counted the tickets taken in at the gate, and it showed exactly 917. This shows that the Arrangement Committee, headed by Jack Seltzer and his assistants, Aaron Hierwitz, Paul Dianno, Joseph Call, Joseph Gabriel, Sol. Pachter, Paul Mustagh and M. Moser worked hard for the success of the affair.

To help them, the Committee had four Duities in Paul Dianno, John Stighabotti, Joseph Dragonetti and Paul Gaffney.

At four o'clock the base ball game between the Silent A. C., of New Jersey and the Deaf-Mutes' Union League started. The umpires were Abraham Barr and a Jersey man. Seven innings were played. The score at the end of the game was 8 to 6 in favor of the Jersey boys, and they were presented with a silver loving cup.

Immediately after the base ball game the track events were run off.

The field officials were: Joseph Montiller and Samuel Seltzer, Starters; Samuel Lowenherz, F. Haberstroh and Anthony Capelle, Judges. Jack Seltzer managed the games.

220 yards (Men)—Won by Daniel Fox; G. Bradley, second.

25 yards (Children under 10 years)—Won by Bernard Niehter; Lester Merkle, second.

40 yard (Girls)—Won by Silva Auerbach; Anna Krinsky, second.

One-Mile Relay Race—(three teams entered, the Houston A. C., and two teams of the Margraf A. C.)—Won by the Houston A. C., who were: N. Cairano, F. Heintz, J. Garrick and D. Fox. The winning team received a silver cup, which was presented by Charles J. Sanford, the deaf-mute jeweler of John Street, who is a member of the Brooklyn Frats. The first team of the Margraf A. C. came in second.

50 yards (Girls)—Won by Sarah Egan; Mollie Getsdorf, second.

One Mile Run (Handicap)—Won by Allyn Manning of the Houston A. C.; M. Forman of the Margraf A. C., second.

440 yards Run—Won by William Schurman, of the Margraf A. C.; Frank Heintz, of the Houston A. C., second.

There was to have been a relay race of the Metropolitan District Divisions, but it was given up as a sufficient number of each Division did not respond to the call of Jack Seltzer.

In the evening, the dancing pavation was crowded, but three of the finest, who were in attendance all day and evening, made room for the dancers.

Jack Seltzer, by the way despite the big crowd, found a baby, who got away from its mama, and returned the little one to its anxious parent, who was looking everywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glasser, of Newark, N. J., and their twin boys of two and half years old, who were present, felt proud on being praised as the parents of such pair of fine boys.

All the past Presidents of Brooklyn Division, except one or two were present.

The proudest of all was no doubt Tom Cosgrove, the present President of No. 23, and he had reason to be proud, for he made his committee hustle from the start, and he himself had much to do with its success in various ways.

Miss Alice Altmayer lost a bracelet at the Brooklyn Frat Picnic. The finder will confer a favor by returning same to her at 513 West 171st Street, New York City.

The Brooklyn Division, N. F. S. D. is offered as follows: Tom Cosgrove, President; Benjamin Friedwald, Vice-President; John Stigliabatti, Secretary; Joseph Call, Treasurer; Paul Dianno, Director; Jack Seltzer, Messenger; Mendai Bernan, Patriarch; Sol Buttenheim, A. Hitchcock and Henry Brauer, Trustees.

X. E. S. CELEBRATE

Ideal weather from sunrise on August 16th to the end of the day, with the stars twinkling above, favored the Xavier Ephpheta Society on its annual observance of the Feast Day of the Deaf, Ephpheta Sunday.

Near to a hundred attended 9 o'clock mass in the Church of St. Francis Xavier, where the Gospel dealing with our Lord's healing of the deaf-mute was read, as in all Catholic churches throughout the land. At Communion, with few exceptions, the deaf received. Others in union therewith, attended their home parish churches.

The bus ride to Roton Point arranged for by the committee, Dan Lynch, chairman, Gus Bernhardt, Andy Mattes and Julius Kieckers, proved a successful affair, despite an unfortunate accident that happened to the leading bus on a steep hill this side of Greenwich, Ct. Filled with a happy load of thirty or more merry deaf, the brakes or steering wheel developed an attack of Charley Horse.

The car skidded backward, but thanks to the coolness of the chauffeur, his manipulation of the wheel brought the vehicle to a standstill against a stone and wire fence on the side of the road. The compact splintered the supports of the overhead covering. Miss Lillian O'Grady received a sprained wrist as the car came to a stop, and Mr. S. J. Fogarty, a laceration on the right side of his face. Several of the women passengers were overcome. For a time, the excitement ran high. The ladies were revived and the three other buses proceeded to Roton Point, one returning to bring back those in the ill-fated car, left at Greenwich. Despite their experience, all arrived with even happier faces than the occupants of the other buses that proceeded them.

At Roton Point, a splendid place for an outing, fully a hundred deaf residents of the New York and Connecticut countryside, joined Ephphetans and their friends. As a publicity aide to the committee, Gil Marshall proved himself an expert. The greetings were of the heartiest. After dinner at the hotel, or luncheon in the grove, all hands turned out to "Do" Roton Point to the limit.

The Committee figured out true to form. At the start the tardy society folk came near being told to go back home. But Chairman Lynch, after a lecture on the perchant of some deaf to put it off until the last minute, relented, and the extra bus was called, delaying the arrival at the Point till 3 p.m.

Rev. Father John A. Egan, S. J., intended to join the party in Bus No. 1, but made way to accommodate the overflow. A friendly Packard of a friendly friend, who was taking a party of six to the Point reached there an hour ahead of the Greely cars.

President Fives, squeezed in to accommodate one of the put-it-offs, and remarked he hoped to see the day when the X. E. S. could go by "Blimps."

Julius Kieckers was the hard-worked end of the Committee. Despite the mishap and the pleas of the "put-it-offs" to go along.

With Gus Bernhardt were wife, son and daughter, the latter, a cog in the wheel of the Famous Players Lasky Film Co., and the former an aspiring auto mechanic. The Mme. Bernhardt sandwiches just couldn't last at a convention of epicures—they were so good.

Andy Mattes, all dolled up in a Palm Beach, tried to take Baby Mattes away from her admirers, while friend wife looked on admiringly, as also Uncle Joe.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Saleski had on the Nutmeg smile, greeting old friends. They live in Meriden.

The Changnons were on the Point—Moise and his sister. Sis is head of the family.

Ben and Mrs. Elkin and, Miss Hintz had front seats on the "Big Ben," going. Coming back they took the boat with 30 others, no "sub" among the buses being available.

Joe Toobey and Mme. Toobey looked happy. It was the end of a perfect vacation for Joe, and the Missus had along with her a hamper of good things.

Allan Hitchcock and daughter were on the bus that went away. When the machine balked, Allan caught his daughter, and except fright, all was well.

No. 23's roster was away ahead of that of the Ephpheta Society. Heading the delegation, of course, was President Cosgrove, not forgetting Tom, Jr., and Ma Cosgrove.

Miss Edith Marshall, one of the 57 or so varieties of the Connecticut family, was perfectly "delighted" to meet old acquaintances from the Big Town. Edith and Mrs. Meisinger piloted a party around the Sound resort like a bunch of professional guides.

Johnny Reilly was not taxed over the regulation two dollar fee, albeit he took up two seats in the second "Big Ben." Mrs. Reilly was along, and took pains to see her John had a good time.

Johnny's old school chum, Jimmy Lonergan, with a touch of "gout" in his left foot, was not as active as of yore, but kept party after party in merry mood with his droll yarns. His side-pod, so different, was Joe McInerney.

The sheik of the aggregation was Joe Call, the guardian of 23's exchequer. When anyone wanted Joe they looked up a bunch of the ladies, and found Joe in the center posing as a Valentino.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drennan did not hesitate to be up betimes to attend church at Xavier's, and had happy looks from start to finish.

Jimmy Deegan, not the ex Giant, forsooth, had the slick chap at the Fortune Wheel booth and on the run.

Miss Marion McCoy and her sister came a l the way from Jackson Heights, L. I. With bobbed hair and becoming dresses the twain looked decidedly chic. They chose the boat ride for home, and had a male chaperon to see them safely—our enterprising Jack O'Brien.

From the grounds of the Jersey City picnic Mr. and Mrs. Earnst started for Richmond Hill, accompanied by their guest Mrs. U. E. Wittmeyer of Stamford, Ct. They stopped at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Fetscher for the night. They enjoyed meeting those who were at the send-off party. They motored to Bayshore, L. I., from there on Sunday morning and spent several hours with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts very pleasantly. Mr. Wilkinson and Mrs. Smith were there. Mrs. Wittmeyer visited with her niece, Mrs. Earnst, for three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Earnst are preparing to leave for North Adams, Mass., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gagner this week. They all will be in Hartford to see Gallaudet unveiling on their way home.

The following clipping is taken from the New York Home News:

Pietro Pollia, forty-seven years old, of No. 235 Stockholm Street, Brooklyn, was arranged in Gates Avenue Court today on a charge of attacking his deaf-mute daughter, Elizabeth, sixteen years old. Magistrate McGarrigle held him in $500 bail for a hearing August 20th. The girl alleges that her father beat her with a stick and a strap so severely that blue spots were left on her body.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Bryan, after returning from interring their daughter in Corning, packed up their household goods, and after bidding good-bye to as many friends as could be reached, left New York City for good. Mr. O'Bryan has secured a good position in Corning, N. Y., and as it is his parental home, he will reside there permanently.

On Sunday August 23d, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Parkes, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Anthony Capelle gave a dinner party, among the others present were his two other boys, Anthony and Frank, who were formerly in the Navy. The first named served during the World's War.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony C. Reiff, of Brooklyn, N. Y., on August 20th, were in Portland, Maine, where they went by boat. They enjoyed their stay, visited places of interest, including the birthplace of Longfellow. The next day they went to Boston by auto-bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Parkes, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Anthony Capelle, with their two children, Kenneth Carroll and Philip Anthony, spent Wednesday, August 19th at Manhattan Beach. Mr. Harold Yager and his mother were also there.

R. Newton Parson, of Springfield, Mass., was in the city last week. On Sunday, August 23d, he visited the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League. He is on a two weeks vacation, which ends on Labor Day.

Frank Capelle, son of Anthony Capelle, who has served Uncle Sam in the Navy for the past four years, was honorably discharged on August 12th, having acquired a clean and honorably record during his entire service.

On Monday afternoon, August 10th, Jack Ebin, Louis Uhlberg and a hearing friend as guest, made a canoe trip up Long Island Sound. All together they travelled 94 miles. Another trip is being planned for Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. McClelland and family, of Mountain View, N. J., and Mrs. McClelland's sister, of Chicago, motored to Asbury Park, Sunday, where they enjoyed the day.

M. Fleischer spent two weeks vacation, visiting Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Canada, and had a very delightful time. He returned home Sunday morning, August 23d.

The Hoffman sisters, Anna and Vera, their brother, and their parents spent August 20th at Indian Point, and greatly enjoyed the outing.

After enjoying the wonderful air and scenes at North Branch, N. Y., for five weeks, Mrs. Julius Seandel has returned home looking fine.

Frank Nimmo, who has been managing a ball club in Jersey, thus far has met with success, having won eleven and lost four games.

Mrs. Rembeck has gone to her parental home in Ohio. In September she will attend the reunion at Columbus.

Lawrence Timer now lives at 520 Wadsworth Avenue, near 189th Street.

OHIO.

News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 993 Franklin Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

August 22, 1925—We went up to Bucyrus on the 14th inst., and after the business that called us there we took an interurban car down to Marion, O. Expected to find Mr. William G. Wheeler in the Star office, the late President Harding's paper, thumping away on a linotype. The paper had already gone through the press, and the linotypists had left the office when we reached there. A taxi was called and ordered to take us to 196 Dix Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were on the front porch when the taxi stopped in front of their home, and before the occupant of the car could alight, they recognized him, and came to the curb and welcomed him. A little over an hour was spent very pleasantly together. They have a nice little home with a large patch for garden, but best of all three bright interesting children, ranging from ten to five years, to make them happy.

Mrs. Wheeler with the children was to go on a visit to her parent's home this week and return with them in time to attend the reunion in Columbus, and where Mr. Wheeler will join and accompany them back to Marion on the last day of the meeting.

The late lawn fete given by the Cleveland St. Agnes' Mission to the Deaf for the benefit of its Church debt was well-attended despite a heavy rain, thunder and lightning storm that prevailed part of the time. Over 100 braved the elements. No admission was charged, nor were there any raffles and tickets for chance games to help swell the receipts.

The fifty dollars cleared came from the sale of sandwiches, ice cream and soft drinks. Rev. August H. Staubitz, of Buffalo, N. Y., a Baptist Evangelist, was present at the lawn fete, and next day gave an impressive and interesting sermon, taking Rev. Sawhill's place, whose guest he was while in Cleveland. Rev. Staubitz was educated in the Rochester School for the Deaf under the late Dr. Westervelt.

There will be something doing in the Forest City August 29th, when the Cleveland Association of the Deaf has its annual Outing at Luna Park on that date. Deaf of the nearby towns are cordially invited, for a good time is promised.

We received a letter this week from Hiram N. Gilkinson, who now resides at 2859 West 57th, Seattle, Wash., for the address of Mrs. Sadie Sawhill. We are informed she is a resident of Cleveland, O. We have written and inquired for it, when informed, will send it.

Mr. Gilkinson left the school here in 1875, and for a time worked as a cigar maker, but later moved to Missouri, where he followed the trade until his health demanded a change, and then took up printing. When he moved West, we do not know. His occupation is of the Stamp business now, for accompanying the letter and two cards, one containing the deaf alphabet, the other contains on one side his address with his picture in a stamp and on the reverse side some postage stamp.

Mr. Gilkinson states that since October 22d, 1923, his right side has been paralyzed, but is still able to walk eight or ten blocks with the aid of a cane. He is making his home with a hearing sister.

Dr. Robert Patterson is to deliver an address before the Tennessee Association of the Deaf, which meets August, 31st-September 5th, at Knoxville. We are sure they will be given a fine treat one, that they will not soon forget.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ohlemacher will soon move to the north-end, several blocks above the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clum, of Clintonville. They swapped their place on East Rich Street, a double building for a new single with a large lot going with it.

The Stitch and Chatter Club by invitation of Mrs. Herman Cook, picked at Indian Springs on the 14th inst. Most of the members were on hand, and all enjoyed the place, as it is an ideal one. There was stitching by some in aid of the Home and Chattering by others in consonance to the society's name. Mrs. Cook saw to it also that provisions were aplenty for all at lunch time. Mrs. A. W. Ohlemacher brought as her guest for the day, Mrs. Eva Offenbacher, of Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Eva Offenbacher with her three bright little boys are visiting in Columbus, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews. We suppose her stay here will be until after the reunion.

Mr. Roy Conkling, editor of The Versailles Policy, has deserted his Faber, shears and paste pot for the time being, (his vacation), and hid himself to Lake St. Helen, Michigan, and enjoy his chief sport, fishing. A card from him to his friend, Mr. Zorn, says: "St. Helen is one of the finest places I have seen. I have caught a 16-pound muskellunge." Take care sonny that some of the big fish up there do not make a victim of you.

Mr. Herbert Volp with his mother and two sisters made a trip by auto to Washington, D. C., and other points of interest. They returned last week.

Announcement is made by Mr. Richard L. H. Long of the marriage of his daughter, Hazel Josephine, to Mr. John J. Graham, Friday, July third, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. Long with his daughter, Juliet, is on a visit to relatives in Minneapolis, Minn., and we hope to see him at the reunion next month.

Frank Sells, a pupil of the School, back in the seventies, died two weeks ago of rheumatism. His home was in East Liverpool, Ohio.

Here is another airplane cure of deafness printed in (A P) dispatch to the State Journal of Columbus. The brother, Joseph mentioned is a pupil of the school here, we were informed.

YOUNGSTOWN, August 16.—(A.P.)—Deaf for two years, Carina Rosemont, 6, has his hearing partly restored today by a 5000-foot nose dive of an airplane. The first hour after reaching the ground the boy's ears pained him from the sudden change in pressure on the ear drums, then he began to distinguish sounds.

Arrangements had been made for his brother Joseph, 10, who also is deaf, to go along on the flight, but he became frightened.

Carma will be given another treatment next week.

EARLY TREATMENT OF DEAF-MUTES.

That electricity was regarded as the panacea and cure-all for every known human ill is shown in the report of the directors of the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb which was submitted to the Legislature in 1835. It was believed when electricity was discovered that it could cure deafness. This is revealed in the exhibits accompanying the report. It was the history of the life of a boy of sixteen years who had been a pupil of the Washington Heights Institution for more than four years.

It reveals, too, how the deaf and dumb like to be by themselves. The boy, George R. Morris, wrote:—

"At the age of about five years I rode in a sleigh in the winter with my parents from the town of Vineyard, Vt. to that of Malone, N. Y. At that time I was often afraid of strangers. Having arrived at Malone, my father held me strongly with his hands before an electrical machine that I might not move, while two persons put two wires of that machine to the drums of my ears. The electricity gave me the shock for several minutes, but I did not cry for the fear of my father's rebuke, but only wept."

"We lodged in a hotel and returned to the house for the same purpose every morning and evening for a few weeks. When I told my parents that I was displeased with our going to the house to receive the shocks, they deceived me in various ways by telling me that we should go home. It was found that I continued deaf and dumb. My parents' hopes of recovering my hearing were lost, and they were sorry for my deafness. We returned home."

Telling of his obsessions of fear, he continues:—

"Often I thought of myself, 'I am deaf and dumb and miserable.' I besought my parents to help me open my ears. But they told me they could not help me. At the age of twelve years, the Governor of New York sent a letter to my father that I should come to the New York Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb. When I was informed of this my joy was more kindled than ever from my birth, for I had never talked with the deaf and dumb."

The boy recounts his journey from Malone to New York, saying how he admired the city, as being great and beautiful.

"We got into a coach for the institution. This was on the first of July, 1830. When I entered the building, I wondered to see many deaf and dumb pupils who could write on subjects and spell with their fingers."

That deaf and dumb boys are not unlike those who can speak with their tongues and not with their fingers is shown in this admission:—

"I was not fond of working on the farm on account of the sun shining on me, but I was most fond of fishing."

The boy had gone to a country school and had unsuccessfully attempted to learn to read and write. But his failure only intensified the anguish of his soul in knowing he was unlike the other children. However, in his new surroundings, he wrote:—

"I was first taught to spell the letters of the alphabet with the fingers, and new words every day."

"I expected that I should not be able to pursue my studies and read any book, but the next half year I learned phrases and compositions. The next year my improvement increased and I learned arithmetic and to write stories, and on subjects. I was taught geography and other books. I was in light mind about the things concerning the earth, sun, planets and stars.

"I do not continue to make such mistakes in my thoughts as I have told you."

"I am very glad to have been taught about the things concerning the kingdom of God."

"I am taught history, arithmetic, geography, the Bible on Sunday, and compositions."

"I am astonished to think of the great difference between my uneducated mind and my enlightened one."

On Sunday, August 16th, the members of the Margraf Club went to Indian Point for their second annual outing.

The members of the Margraf Club had a curious style of bathing suit for hiking in the woods and swimming in the water. They had an extremely merry time, making snap shots from a kodak, and a boat excursion.

Four composers on the JOURNAL trained on the grounds of the Institution and at Macomb Dam Park, for the affair of Brooklyn Division, No. 23, N. F. S. D., which was held on Saturday, August 22d, at Ulmer Park.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Bernard Greene (nee Doris Schumrack), who graduated from here, made a short visit at the JOURNAL office.

On Tuesday, August 18th, Perry Schwing went to Brighton Beach, with his family. Perry got a good swim, a coat of tan, and enjoyed being introduced to many deaf-mutes who were there.

On August 15th, Miss Flora Christoffer invited ten friends to a party at her home, in honor of her birthday. They reported a nice time.

C. Astor, who comes from Porto Rico, is here as a new pupil. He is studying English language, as he is a Spanish boy.

On the 17th, Fred Hoffman departed from his home at Brooklyn, to go to Watertown, N. Y., to see Melvin Ruthven, who lives there. They are members of the Margraf Club. They will go to Canada, accompanied by Robert Schneider.

Rudolph Behrens, a graduate of '25, James Garrick, Frank Heintz, Pat Prevete, and other boys of the Houston Club, went to the Macomb's Dam Park. They met William Ritola, the famous runner of Finland, and shook hands with him, Saturday last.

Perry Schwing's mother and sister, Viola Schwing, went to Newark, N. J., to visit relatives last Wednesday.

A post card from Arne Olsen, a Fanwood pupil, to Edward Kirwin, locates him at Freeport, Me. He is spending his three weeks' vacation.

Miss Sarah Egan, a Fanwood pupil, enjoyed a trip to Asbury Park, Sunday, the 16th inst.

David Retzker and Fred Hoffman, being laid off from work, were callers at the JOURNAL on the 11th of August.

The girls of this Institution, who went to the Gould Camp, at Pelham Bay, N. Y., came back to school, and some of them went to their homes. At the Gould Camp, in Spring Valley, N. Y., some of the girls have left for their homes. Those who are still at camp will leave on or before September 8th.

Saturday morning, August 22d, Messrs. Louis Uhlberg, Emil Mulfeldt, and Charles Morris, of Albany, N. Y., visited in the JOURNAL office, and were greatly surprised at the change for the better that has been made.

The Home News had the following comment, with a half-tone of Edith Kaercher, who is a pupil of Fanwood: "This pretty thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kaercher, of Ardsley, has gained a country-wide reputation in Westchester as a swimmer and high diver. At the several popular bathing resorts in the county, she has out-dared many expert male swimmers in diving from lofty heights. A Miss Kaercher is also noted as a distance runner and high jumper."

Mr. August Wriede and Miss Leitner, of Baltimore, Md., called at the JOURNAL office on Monday last.

Miss Agnes Craig returned from her vacation last Saturday night.

Mr. Samuel Kohn with his son was a visitor in the JOURNAL office on Monday forenoon, August 24th.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

In less than a month after Dr. A. L. E. Crouter died, his younger brother, C. W. Crouter, also died in the West.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. M. Ethel Giffin, (a Gallaudet College graduate), a copy of the Wheatland Times, of Wheatland, Wyoming, dated July 23d, 1925, containing an account of the death, was received by a friend here, who passed it on to the JOURNAL correspondent.

Charles W. Crouter, pioneer druggist of Wheatland, died at 4 p.m. on Monday, following an illness of only a few days, double pneumonia following influenza being the cause of death.

Mr. Crouter had been a resident of Wheatland for 22 years, coming here in 1903 as manager of the Pioneer Pharmacy, and later entering the drug business independently. During his residence here, he was one of the leading men of this country, filling many public offices of trust, including two terms as assessor of Platte County. While always taking an active part in public affairs, political and otherwise, his sturdy integrity and genial democratic manners made him universally respected and the friend of all.

He was born at Belleville, Canada, in 1857, coming across the line into the United States in 1879 at the age of 19 and settling in Greeley, Col., where he engaged in pharmacy work. Here he was married in 1885 to Miss Mabel Hill, who survives him. While at Greeley, he took an active and leading part, to the extent that he was elected State Auditor in 1900, serving until 1903, when he came to Wheatland.

He is survived by his wife and by two sons, Edgerton Crouter, now traffic manager for the Cebu Cement Company, with headquarters in Manila and Cleale Crouter, who has been associated with him in the drug business. His passing leaves an irremedial gap in the circle of his friends and business associates, and in the community as well.

The funeral was held from the Congregational church at 10:00 a.m. today, Rev. A. Gladstone Finney preaching the funeral sermon, followed by burial in the Wheatland Cemetery. Business houses and the court house were closed during the services.

The Masonic funeral services was held at the cemetery, in charge of W. M. David B. Cochrane.

A short time ago we put an item in this column about the reported accidental death of Mr. John Q. Hahn, a former resident of Philadelphia and well-known here. It was hard to believe the report, and although we knew that Mr. Hahn had a hearing brother living hereabouts, we could not locate him in order to have him confirm or deny the truth of the report. So, after reporting the rumor, we also asked for confirmation or denial of the story by any one who knows, and, as a result, we received a letter from Mr. Preston L. Stevenson, of Findley, O., dated August 15th, saying that Mr. Hahn is all right and living at present in Findley with relatives since last December 15th. His brother and wife, of Oil City, Pa., with whom Mr. Hahn usually spends most of his time, left for a trip to Alaska. Upon their return
